

Welcome to Madrid

Located within the Palacio de Hielo Shopping and Leisure Centre, this Olympic size (60x30m) skating rink is one of the five biggest rinks in Spain where you can practice this sport, combining physical strength with artistic expression. A great idea for a fun day out close to IFEMA Madrid.

Since 2003, this facility has offered courses in ice-skating, hockey and curling during the week, while becoming a place for family fun during the weekends. It also offers the possibility of celebrating birthdays for young (and not so young) children with a picnic and snack bar area, and the whole of the frozen surface reserved for skating and having fun.

It also has El Palco bar-cafeteria, opened in September 2021.
