

Welcome to Madrid

This Golf Club is located to the South East of the Guadarrama Mountain Range, at the foot of Monte Abantos. It opened in 1966, in one of the most pleasant areas of the Community of Madrid. The course spreads out over 75 hectares (185 acres) and is located in La Herrería, in a forage crop-meadow. This 18-hole course spreads out over 6,091 metres.

There are different access rates depending on whether you visit on a week day, weekend or public holiday. There is currently a waiting list for members. Users can hire manual transmission and electric carts, buggies, club bags... There is a practice range with 22 posts where users can practice on bunkers and putting greens. The Club offers beginners and advanced classes at the golf school.

There are also facilities for practising other sports like tennis or padel (sport similar to platform tennis), as well as swimming pools, a physiotherapy service, a restaurant, a club house and a children's area, bridge hall, among others.
