

Welcome to Madrid

Located halfway between Plaza de España and the Liria Palace, in the Conde Duque district, this establishment became the first audiophile club in Madrid, after its 2020 refurbishment. It is also possible to enjoy first class sound there, along with a wide variety of cocktails and haute cuisine snacks, by David García (Head Chef at El Corral de la Morería) and Iñaki Sanz de Larrechea, and, of course, an interesting range of live music.

Tempo Audiophile Club has two floors and four different atmospheres. At the entrance on the first floor, there is an area with tables, where there is also excellent sound equipment (identical to that used at the legendary Woodstock Festival). There is also a bar and a "Listening Room", designed to fully enjoy the sound and where conversations will be kept low to prioritise listening. The concert hall and disco are in the basement, which is also fitted out with the world's best sound equipment.
