

Welcome to Madrid

With over 50 years of history, this huge concert venue by the Manzanares River is still a classic of Madrid's nightlife. La Riviera has always given a warm welcome to the generations of customers who have attended its numerous shows.

Its open-plan 1,500 square metre space is presided over by a large stage with a huge circular dance floor which opens out through the glass doors to a large terrace, one of the club's best features. This is an ideal place to spend summer nights, but also the rest of the year, as it is air conditioned to cater for every season.
