

Welcome to Madrid

Close to the Paseo de la Castellana and the Azca area, Moby Dick is one of the leading clubs in the concert hall circuit in Madrid. Since it opened in 1992, you can enjoy live music, mainly indie rock, but also metal, pop, folk, soul, jazz... And when the curtain goes down, the hall becomes a fun bar where you can enjoy the best current indie music, as well as the most outstanding pop-rock hits.

The decoration of the premises stands out for its seafaring motifs, which coexist with electric guitars.

Moby Dick's programme is committed to little-known bands or those outside the commercial circuits, offering them the chance to make themselves known on their stage, which has also been visited by performers of the stature of Ash, Australian Blonde, Antonio Vega, Big Soul, Burning, The Christians, Dover, Los Enemigos, Los Flechazos, La Frontera, Fundación Tony Manero, Gabinete Caligari, Kiko Veneno, Los Limones, M-Clan, Mama, Nancho Novo, Chavela Vargas, Pablo Carbonell, Pereza, Petersellers, Pistones, Los Planetas, Los Refrescos, Los Ronaldos, Sexy Sadie, Sidonie, among many others.
