

Welcome to Madrid

Founded by Fernando del Diego, a student of Perico Chicote, in 1992, this elegant space, with a New York air, offers the public a great variety of combinations. In fact, its menu is one of the most extensive in Madrid: gin tonics, mojitos, piña coladas, daiquiris, etc. Located in Chueca, very close to the Gran Vía, it is one of the city's most outstanding cocktail bars.

Drinks can be paired with snacks like croquettes and Iberian ham. A very pleasant, chilled-out atmosphere that goes hand in hand with a varied music selection (jazz, funk, acid, etc.) that puts you in the mood for calm conversations as you spend an afternoon or evening in Madrid. The waiters are a real sight, elegant and impeccable in their tuxedos. One of the liveliest cocktail bars in the city.
