

Welcome to Madrid

The Hare Krishna Temple in Madrid has a dining room where you can savour a menu of 6 or 7 lacto-vegetarian dishes, as well as a vegan option. As it is a religious entity, payment for the food is by means of a donation.

From Tuesday to Saturday, you can savour dishes prepared in accordance with the Hare Krishna vegetarian cooking standards: salad, rice, vegetable sabji (stew), dhal (purée), dessert, tea and bread.

To enter the dining room, it is compulsory to remove footwear and there is a little space to sit down and eat. (Another option is to use one of the mats on the floor).
