

Welcome to Madrid

In the purest Las Vegas and Broadway style, enjoy the world's most spectacular musical and gastronomic show at IFEMA MADRID. An immersive and interactive experience where everyone is welcome and which is back in the city with a revamped show that is more impressive, resounding and innovative than ever to excite and move the audience through music and its original gastronomic performance.

“For centuries, the art we call music has led us astray on a path towards disarray, anarchy and chaos. But that is about to change: music is hereby prohibited.” We find ourselves in the dystopian world of Nación Omega, where there is just one place where a glimmer of hope still remains. In this small oasis known as Wah, the fight against repression employs the only effective weapon: the very music they don't want us listening to.

Are you ready to discover the story of the most spectacular show in the world? For the first time in Spain, with its eclectic format and sensational staging, WAH Madrid brings together an array of artists and professionals who have worked at the Oscars ceremonies, Eurovision, on London's West End and Broadway, and for globally renowned artists and bands including Sting and AC/DC.

“They think they can take music away from us. They think they can stop us from dreaming, loving, enjoying, sharing, and living. But we will never let that happen.” An unforgettable playlist will form part of the resistance. Puccini, Paco de Lucia, Guns & Roses, David Guetta, and Lady Gaga, among other big names, will take to the stage in this fusion of genres from opera to house, flamenco, electro, gospel, and rock.

An incredible show, a delectable dinner and an afterparty to remember

Another reason not to miss this almost-5-hour extravaganza is the wonderful WAH Food Hall, the first stop of the evening. 12 stations with display cooking, serving everything from the finest Iberian cold cuts and gourmet hamburgers to Asian fare and a wide selection of vegan foods, will whisk you away on a culinary journey through the flavours of the seven continents.

Once the party is over and thanks to the main sponsor Uber, you'll easily be able to get a car at the pick-up point set up exclusively for WAH-goers next to IFEMA MADRID's Pavilion 2.

So, get ready to be transported to the nightclubs of New York with an evening of music, entertainment, cuisine, cocktails, and an extraordinary afterparty!
