

Welcome to Madrid

Boombastic Festival is holding another edition at the Miguel Ríos Auditorium in Rivas-Vaciamadrid on 17 June 2023, becoming one of the first summer festivals in the city. It is an event that brings together the best of today's urban music with performances by the artist from Argentina, Bizarrap, Funzo&Baby Loud, Recycled J, Delaossa, Ptazeta, Pole, Ysy A, Zetazen, Hoke&Louis Amoeba, Jaime Lorente, Leo Rizzi and Nano, among others.

For the second consecutive year, the Boombastic Festival will be held at the Miguel Ríos Auditorium in Rivas Vaciamadrid, one of the largest outdoor venues in the Community of Madrid, with capacity for up to 30,000 spectators.

The line-up for the 2023 edition is headed by the Argentinean artist Bizarrap, who currently has almost 35 million streams a month on Spotify. Other leading artists in the urban music genre will also be on stage, such as Funzo&Baby Loud, Recycled J, Delaossa, Ptazeta, Pole, Ysy A, Zetazen, Hoke&Louis Amoeba, Jaime Lorente, Saiko, Leo Rizzi, Nano, Dudi, Enor, Munic HB, Delgao, Bon Calso and Dani Riba, among others.

Although the festival's central theme is music, there will also be space for other experiences with the presence of a food truck service, where food from different parts of the world can be sampled with original and varied menus.
