

Welcome to Madrid

The popular American band led by the singer, Adam Levine, is coming to the WiZink Center on 15 June as part of its latest European tour, which will visit stages across the United Kingdom and Europe in 2023. On this tour, the group will review its most emblematic songs, as well as performing tracks from its latest album, Jordi, released in 2021.

The American pop rock group, Maroon 5, led by the vocalist, Adam Levine, made its debut in 2001 and has sold more than 90 million albums and 550 million singles worldwide since then.

The group's first album, Songs About Jane (2002), was well received by the public and critics alike, with songs such as Harder to Breathe, This Love and She Will Be Loved. Their second album, It Won't Be Soon Before (2007) reached the top of the Billboard 200 chart, including popular songs, such as the first single, Makes Me Wonder, and Wake Up Call, Won't Go Home Without You and If I Never See Your Face Again along with Rihanna.

These were followed by Hands All Over (2010), Overexposed (2012), V (2014), Red Pill Blues (2018) and more recently, Jordi (2021), which includes great songs like Misery, Moves like Jagger with Christina Aguilera, One More Night, Maps, Animals, Sugar or Girls Like You.

Their latest album to date, Jordi, includes its most recent hits, such as Nobody's Love and Memories, which has beaten the record of 1 billion streams on Spotify and more than 700 million views on YouTube.

Maroon 5 has become consolidated as one of the most popular and successful pop-rock groups on the musical scene with a career that has accumulated three Grammy Awards and thirteen nominations, and has obtained gold and platinum discs in more than 35 countries.
