

Welcome to Madrid

The artist from the Canary Islands, responsible for the hit album Quédate, will be coming to the WiZink Center on 5th May as part of his new DQE Tour. At this concert, he will be performing tracks from his debut album as well as all the hits from his brief but successful music career so far.

Pedro Luis Domínguez-Quevedo Arilla, better known by the stage name of Quevedo, has a musical style that fuses the genres of reggaeton, trap, and pop rap. The artist launched his career in 2020, with the help of producer Linton, and his single Ahora y siempre (2021) reached number 19 on the Top 50 viral songs: Spotify Global playlist, ranking second in the Top 50 viral songs: Spain playlist.

In 2022, he presented the song Cayó la noche remix, on which he collaborated with other artists from the Canary Islands, such as Cruz Cafuné and Bejo, a chart-topping song that firmly secured Quevedo a place on the national music scene.

In July 2022, with Argentine DJ and producer Bizarrap, he brought out Quevedo: Bzrp Music Sessions, Vol. 52 which was streamed ten million times in one day and was the number one trending video on YouTube Spain. This record also features the track Quédate, which has already notched up more than 400 million views on YouTube and has made him the artist to watch.

His most recent collaborations include Fernet with Rei, and 2Step, with the famous British singer Ed Sheeran. In addition, in December 2022 he released the song Playa del Inglés with Myke Towers as the fourth single from his debut album.

Now Quevedo is taking to the stage for a new concert tour that has already sold out for most dates, including Madrid, performing songs from his debut album, as well as his biggest hits.
