

Welcome to Madrid

On 2 April, Teatro Rialto presents a family music show created by Rock en Familia that pays tribute to Michael Jackson. A special concert featuring the most anthemic songs and choreographies of one of the greatest legends in music.

The show stars artist SacMjj, considered the best Michael Jackson impersonator in the world, who will be accompanied on stage by Jackson's Army, his impressive dance corps. The concert will include all the greatest hits and choreographies of the "King of Pop", including Beat it, Bad, Black or White, Billie Jean, We are the world and Thriller, including zombies.

Michael Jackson is one of the most famous solo artists in the history of music. Throughout his career he sold over 350 million records, making him the biggest-selling pop artist of all time and one of the biggest-selling musicians in the world. Among many other awards, he received 26 American Music Awards and 15 Grammy Awards.
