

Welcome to Madrid

Discover its new location in El Corte Inglés (Serrano, 47)!

Now located on the third floor of El Corte Inglés on Calle Serrano, 47, StreetXO is the most informal project by the chef with three Michelin stars, Dabiz Muñoz. Inspired by the Asian food stands, its menu offers Oriental and fusion cuisine.

In the words of the chef himself, it is a new concept in street food. This dynamic character is reflected in the layout of the establishment, a bar without any stools or chairs, where customers are served directly by the chefs.

The new establishment is more spacious than the previous one but will follow its ground breaking aesthetics, its original culinary proposals and, as a new feature, its capacity is increased by 10 diners, initially reaching 50 diners per sitting, extending to 75 later. On entering, diners will come across a cocktail bar, where they can have a drink while waiting to enter the restaurant. Then, there is a room with a long red bar that goes around the kitchen, around which the customers are seated.

As of April 2023, the new Streetxo will have a terrace with views over Calle Serrano and two VIP Areas, which can be reserved.

Dabiz Muñoz is also chef of the DiverXo restaurant, awarded with three Michelin stars, which will soon leave its current location at the Hotel NH Eurobuilding, to move to a new venue. There, it will serve a daring and imaginative selection of Asian and fusion cuisine. He also has Ravioxo, his latest culinary project located in the Gourmet Experience space at El Corte Inglés on Castellana, where pasta and dough are the driving thread, which has been awarded a Michelin star in the 2023 edition.
