

Welcome to Madrid

The Teatro Bellas Artes was inaugurated in the year 1961, designed by José Ramón Tamayo, and entered the history of Spanish theatre thanks to his brother, Don Ramón Tamayo, up until the year 2005, when Pentacion S.A took over the management and programming, under the direction of Jesús Cimarro.

This small theatre is located on the ground floor of the Circle of Fine Arts building. The beautiful painting of Vicente Viudes, which adorns the entrance, stands out. It hosts all kinds of performing arts.
