

Welcome to Madrid

It is a perfect location for fairs and conferences as it is situated inside the Casa del Campo, the biggest public park in Madrid, only a five-minute drive from the Plaza de España.

With excellent transport links by metro and bus, the Casa de Campo exhibition centre covers an area of 67 ha: 40 000m<sup>2</sup> outdoor and 33 000 m<sup>2</sup> covered. A group of independent spaces with different characteristics ( the Glass Pavilion, the Convention Pavilion, the Multipurpose Madrid Arena Pavilion, the Madrid Arena Satellite Pavilion, the Puerta del Angel Stage and the Auditorium Theatre) that can be adapted to any type of event. There are pavilions between 1500 and 20 000 m<sup>2</sup> in size, and rooms from 100 to 2500 m<sup>2</sup>.

Although the schedule mainly revolves around trade fairs and congresses, it is worth keeping an eye on the programme as there are sometimes major art or history exhibitions, sports competitions, and events that will appeal to everyone.
