

Welcome to Madrid

Madrid Original was founded in 2006 by Pilar Berrozpe and David Ruiz to offer private guided tours. They focus on one word: Original. Original is essential, authentic and different.

The visits avoid anecdotes and instead focus on the visitors' questions, they base the tours on history rather than legend. With history and suspense the common theme, these tours are completely gripping, you will feel like you are living the history and it's certainly something you'll never forget.
