

Welcome to Madrid

Located next to the Atocha Train Station and very close to the Paseo del Arte, 'La Neomudéjar' Avant-garde Art Centre and International Artist Residency, is a space dedicated to the most innovative creations.

Video-art festivals, exhibitions, talks and artistic installations are programmed in this space, which has artists in residence, who leave their mark on the building itself.

La Neomudéjar is installed in the former offices of Adif, the state railway company. The building used to belong to the old Atocha station, and the end of the railway line went right up to its door, where materials were unloaded directly from the freight wagons.

The neo-mudéjar style of the building gives the space an identity linked to Madrid art, since this architectural trend is very closely bound to Madrid, which was one of the Spanish cities where it achieved the greatest success.

The permanent collection at the La Neomudéjar Avant-Garde Arts Centre is located in Fuencarral, in the City of Art - Zapadores Museum, located in a former army barracks, and it is committed to the new voices of art.
