

Welcome to Madrid

This acting school and independent theatre hall, located in the Arganzuela neighbourhood, schedules theatre, children's theatre, infant theatre, monologues, comedy, improvisation, magic, dance, among other shows every weekend. It also offers future actors and actresses integral training that enables them to get into the labour market as flexible and self-sufficient artists with a solid technical base.

It offers acting classes for different ages as well as different levels and degrees of interest. There are courses for beginners as well as for those looking to make a career out of acting. They also offer a wide variety of workshops.

Its theatre hall has been active since 2011 with a capacity of 40 seats.
