

Welcome to Madrid

On the corner of Tirso de Molina you will find this gastronomic area, set up as an Asian street market that, with its decor and fragrant dishes, will transport visitors to the streets of Bangkok, Tokyo or Hong Kong. At these stalls, you can savour authentic Asian street food.

This oriental fast food market is divided into two areas, with a total of 10 yatais (street food stalls) along with two bars. Various stalls offer different gastronomic proposals from the East, South and South East of Asia, such as sushi, Vietnamese rolls, baos, dim sum, and poke bowls, among many other offerings. There are also two stalls serving up Asian-Spanish fusion food.

The average price of a basic drink and food ranges between € 10 - € 12.

Yatai Market has another space in Europolis, in Las Rozas, on the outskirts of Madrid.
