

Welcome to Madrid

Madrid's Gran Via has been chosen as the site for Cristiano Ronaldo's first hotel outside Portugal.

The building dates back to 1920 and has been fully renovated, with 168 rooms, divided into nine categories and equipped with the latest technology, excellent facilities, and services. Naturally, there is a strong sporting theme, both in the decor, with signed t-shirts and photos of the footballer, and in its facilities, as it has a fitness box or sport zone. It also runs training programmes and sports activities.

On the 9th floor, open to everyone, there is a pizzeria serving up the culinary creations of chef Mauro Soggiu, one of the founders of what is considered one of the best pizzerias in New York, a sports bar where you can play table football or watch a match, and a spectacular rooftop spread over different levels with a 360 view of the Madrid skyline.

The hotel also has meeting rooms that can be set up in different layouts, with walls that turn into whiteboards, and video conferencing rooms.
