

Welcome to Madrid

In November JAZZMADRID returns. An unbridled celebration of all things jazz, the festival will see a range of top-class musicians performing at various venues across the city. Spain's finest jazz musicians will once again be joined by high profile international artists.

The official programme concerts will be held in three cultural centres: Fernán Gómez, Centro Cultural de la Villa, CentroCentro and Condeduque Centre of Contemporary Culture. In addition, there will concerts hosted by other venues such as the National Auditorium, Círculo de Bellas Artes, Instituto Italiano di Cultura and the Institut Français de Madrid. The festival will also be joining forces with various other series of concerts to give locals and visitors to the city even more time to enjoy the finest jazz, with events from mid October to the end of December: Villanos de Jazz, Festival de Jazz Ciudad Lineal, 21 Distritos and La Noche en Vivo.
