

Welcome to Madrid

The Flamenco Madrid festival is taking place once again (from 18 May to 4 June 2023), an event that seeks above all to showcase and promote flamenco - singing, playing, and dance- and Spanish dance, making these disciplines more accessible to the general public through shows, exhibitions, and talks. The main venue for the festival is the Fernán Gómez Cultural Centre, but the programme also takes place at other major cultural venues around the city, such as Matadero Madrid, Conde Duque and CentroCentro, among others. The sixth edition of the festival was dedicated to Camarón de la Isla on the 30th anniversary of his death.

It will be a month completely dedicated to flamenco with activities like dance, song, exhibitions, conferences and round tables all being part of this event. The program includes different types of Spanish and international dancing with more than 40 shows that will be presented once more at the stages of Salas Guirau and Jardiel Poncela of the Fernán Gómez Centro Cultural de la Villa.

Dancing, singing and instrumental shows, also have their place at the festival alongside other interesting activities like exhibitions, round tables and master classes.

Accessibility

Física

The Centre fulfils accessibility requirements to enter the facilities and the different contents that are offered. Access for wheelchair users is via the Paseo de la Castellana entrance on the corner of C/Goya.

People with reduced mobility must communicate their situation on purchasing their tickets at the ticket office.

Auditiva

The theatre's halls and ticket office are equipped with the Inductive Loop audio system for people with hearing impairments in possession of supporting products, such as hearing aids or cochlear implants with T-position.

To buy tickets and enjoy the shows, people with hearing impairments must purchase tickets in the three central sections (never the far sides) and from Row 4 upwards.
